Medford

Earlier this week, the Joint Committee on Finance began its series of public hearings, which will be held around the state. The Committee will be near the 87th Assembly District on Monday, March 23rd. Here is the information for the public hearing:

University of Wisconsin-Barron County

10am-5pm

Fine Arts Theatre

1800 College Dr.

Rice Lake

If you have any opinions about the proposed budget, I encourage you to attend any of these listening sessions to voice your concerns.

This Week in Madison

This past Tuesday, the Assembly passed a number of bi-partisan supported bills. These bills include:

- Assembly Bill 27 : the maximum speed limit on freeways and expressways.
- Assembly Bill 37 : requiring certain persons to hold certificates of food protection practices in order to operate certain school lunchrooms participating in the National School Lunch Program.
- Assembly Bill 80 : review by state agencies of administrative rules and enactments and an expedited process for repealing rules an agency no longer has the authority to promulgate.
- Assembly Bill 81 : modifying and repealing rules promulgate by the Department of Financial Institutions and the Department of Revenue relating to documents filed with county registers of deeds.
- Assembly Bill 82 : instruments filed or recorded with, and fees charged by, the register of deeds.

In the 87th District

I enjoyed visiting the 4th graders at Athens Elementary School!

I presented Eagle Scout Anthony Lichwa, Jr. with a citation from the Legislature!
